FAQ Sheet for Raise 'em Up Auction Events

Proverbs 22:6

Train up a child in the way he should go and when
He is old he will not depart from it.

We want to raise up the kids, the funds and the fun!

Who comes to this event? Parents are the greatest majority, and friends of parents and members of the community. Salem Lutheran Church and School are deeply involved in community service and the Businesses appreciate the outreach and leadership roles Salem plays. When auction items are being procured, items that appeal to a variety Of individuals, not just unique to Salem, are important. Vacations trips, Crawfish boils, hunts, music lessons, etc., are appealing to everyone!

What are the two auction events? There is a dinner auction event evening that Includes a Bid Board, a Live Auction, a Silent Auction and lots of fun and an Online Auction that follows.

Dinner Auction Event is to be held on Friday, November 30, at 6:30 pm, at the 2K Reserve in Hempstead. "Jeans and Jewels" is the attire and the atmosphere one of fun, food and fellowship to Raise funds for our technology tools, teacher stipends, and tuition reduction that supersede our annual budget. A cash bar, a great meal, live band with KG Williams, and a mechanical bull ride add to the fun!

Online Auction will take place the week following the live auction event, December 2- December 9. If you can't attend the live event or don't get the items you wanted at the live auction, you can check what's out there on the world wide web! Check out is online.

Where do I pick up my items? Items purchased at the live event will be paid for and taken with you that evening. Items purchased online will be paid for online and picked up at Sale Lutheran School the week of December 10.

Auctioneers are Feline and Rick from The Texas Auction House, joined by Tomball Chamber President Bruce Hillegiest, a Salem alumnus. Expect the best!!!

Is the live event far away and who will watch the kids? 2K Reserve, a new venue owned by another Salem alumnus, is about 35 minutes away- and we have reserved a limousine bus to take you back and forth from Salem. As part of their donation, the early childhood staff will watch the children at no cost here at Salem facilities. To take advantage of these amenities, please email Sheri at slosoya@salem4u.com.

Tickets Individual tickets to the dinner auction event and table sponsorships can be purchased through the school website beginning October 1, along with the opportunity to donate toward underwriting the cost of the event. Our hope is to cover our event before the auctions ever begin! The live event is lively and entertaining, a wonderful way for new families to meet the established families and raise funds for a common goal- our kids at Salem Lutheran School!
